Sir,

Excl & Rs

I have the honor to bring to your notice that the privilege of vending toddy in the *marginally noted shops in the Gubbi Taluq was leased out to one Arochappa from 1st April 1892 to 31st March 1893. The lessee paid the first month's instalment but failed to produce tangible security to the amount of three months instalments. Only Rs 96.14.1 has been received for May. Notices were issued to him for the balance without effect. Measures adopted to recover the amount from the daily realizations of his shops are reported to be equally fruitless, the amount thus realized being too trivial. The lessee does not seem to possess sufficient means to meet Government demand. Under these circumstances I think the resale of the lease is necessary. I therefore solicit

3. The vernacular records are herewith submitted.
